

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job title
Environmental Fate/Exposure Modeller/Risk Assessor
Name of person or job role reporting to
Head of Environmental Fate and Exposure Modelling; Dr Adrian Terry
Responsibilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Conduct environmental risk assessments for a range of different chemical types, in accordance with technical requirements (including plant protection products, biocides, general chemicals and veterinary products).▪ Utilise relevant guidance documents and modelling tools (e.g. Ecetoc TRA, CHESAR, FOCUS models) in order to determine, and where appropriate refine, estimates of environmental exposure.▪ Write high quality risk assessment reports to fulfil CEA delivery obligations to commercial and government clients.▪ Contribute to CEA risk assessment problem solving team, providing innovative solutions to regulatory problems.▪ Maintain and build CEA's reputation and relationship with clients and regulators by taking part in face-to-face meetings, conference calls and presentations, as required.▪ When relevant, take part in CEA initiatives to develop government-funded research and consultancy opportunities.▪ Undertake research investigations/training exercises in order to broaden CEA's offer to commercial clients.▪ Maintain compliance with QMS requirements, ISO 9001:2000.
Qualifications/Experience
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Have experience in environmental fate and behaviour, either gained within industry, consultancy or a regulatory agency.• Have experience in exposure modelling for agrochemicals (e.g., FOCUS), biocides, veterinary medicines or REACH (e.g., CHESAR, ECETOC TRA).• Have good problem-solving skills and a willingness to learn new approaches.• Be able to work autonomously.• Have the ability to work on multiple projects and manage associated budgets.• Have good attention to detail.• Be a good communicator.• Be client focused.• Be willing to attend and participate in client meetings and external events (when safe/appropriate to do so).
I hereby agree that I have read and understood the job description.
Signed
Date
Name